Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The Constitution of the United States of America gives us the foundation for a free, prosperous and independent life for every citizen, but each generation, in turn, must work for and claim it; otherwise, through carelessness or indifference, the rights and liberties we have enjoyed may vanish; and,

WHEREAS, It is of the greatest consequence that the citizens fully understand the provisions and principles contained in the Constitution of the United States of America in order to be able to support it properly as, "The greatest document for human liberty in two thousand years of recorded history"; and,

WHEREAS, The people of the United States should be deeply grateful to their Founding Fathers for the wisdom and foresight they displayed in writing and adopting the Constitution. The independence granted to the American people to enjoy such freedom and liberty, unknown to any other country, should be celebrated by appropriate ceremonies and activities during Constitution Week, September 17 through 23, as designated by proclamation of the President of the United States in accordance with Public Law No. 915:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 17-23, 1985, as
